

Neil: I've got bored, uncle Fred.

Fred: Oh, have you? Don't you have something interesting to do?

Neil: Yes, I do.

Fred: What's that?

Neil: I can play with God.

Fred: Play with God? How can you play with God?

Neil: I'll show you. Let's get out and play in the garden.

Fred: OK. Let's

(in the garden)

Neil: Look at me carefully, uncle Fred.

Fred: OK.

(Neil throws the ball up, and catches it)

Neil: Did you see it? That's miracle isn't it?

Fred: I don't get it. What's special about it?

Neil: Really! can't you see it? I threw the ball and caught it.

Fred: Yes?

Neil: Can you play "catch ball" alone?

Fred: Well..., probably not.

Neil: See? I throw the ball, and God throws it back, then I can catch it. Understand?

Fred: Ahhhh, but that's because of Newton's law of gravitation, it was discovered when he Gosh, never mind. Boy! That's great. Do you think I can do the same, Neil?

Neil: I don't know. If you are a good person, maybe you can.

Fred: Only a good person can do it?

Neil: That's right. Have you ever told a lie?

Fred: N...no, I haven't.

Neil: Did you study hard when you were a kid?

Fred: Y...yes, I did.

Neil: Were you nice to people, especially to children?

Fred: Yes, I was.

Neil: Do you believe in God?

Fred: Yes, I do.

Neil: OK, then you can do it. Try one.

Fred: OK, I hope I can do it too.
